

Sydney University Sailing Courses

The Sydney Uni Sailing Club provides sailing courses for students and members of the public in cooperation with Woollahra Sailing Club in Rose Bay.

Level 1 course description: The intensive program will introduce students to the world of sailing. While on the water, students will be given the opportunity to handle the dinghies and get used to the sail controls. Each course is made up by 4 x 2hr sessions which take place over four consecutive weeks from 1pm. All participants must be able to swim. Completed forms should be forwarded to usydsailing@gmail.com
